

Solo Build It! vs Solo Build It! for WP

What are the main differences? Which product is the best fit for you?

Both products offer a combination of tools, guidance, community and support to give you the highest chance of succeeding online.

Solo Build It! is the all-inclusive solution with an easy-to-use site builder, free website templates, traffic reporting, email marketing system, form builder, social tools and much more.

Hosting and domain name registration are included.

It's perfect for you if you are just starting out and want everything included in one integrated suite of tools. It's also good for you if you like doing your own HTML or have been using a site builder such as Wix (or Weebly, Yola, etc.) before.

Solo Build It! for WP was specifically created for people who prefer WordPress as their site builder, and want the diversity of WP plugins and themes.

Hosting and domain name registration are not included.

It's perfect for you if you are already familiar with WordPress, possibly even have a WordPress site, and would like to take it to the next level, i.e. turn it into an income-generating online business.
